First Announcement

June 17-20, 2014 - Milan, Italy

9th International Conference on Workplace Bullying and Harassment

Promoting dignity and justice at work

Pre-conference doctoral workshops and Special Interest Groups on June 17, 2014

Scope of the conference

Interest in workplace bullying has dramatically increased over the past 15 years, gradually involving different countries worldwide and different actors in a wide range of study and intervention areas. Actually, research and practice still highlight the negative impact of workplace bullying on the individual, the work organization and the society at large. The current critical economic and social times call for even more attention in the issue, with a view to safeguarding and promoting dignity and justice at work.

The conference is the biennial event of the International Association of Workplace Bullying and Harassment (IAWBH).
